Mug Base

Using 5mm hook

Rnd 1: Make a magic ring and sc 6 times into it. [6 chs]

Do not ss as you will be working in rounds, amigurumi style.

Rnd 2: Sc 2 times in each sc. [12 chs]

Rnd 3: (1 sc, sc 2 times in the next sc) rep 6 times. [18 chs] Rnd 4: (2 sc, sc 2 times into the next sc) rep 6 times. [24 chs] Rnd 5: (3 sc, sc 2 times into the next sc) rep 6 times. [30 chs] Rnd 6: (4 sc, sc 2 times into the next sc) rep 6 times. [36 chs] Rnd 7: (5 sc, sc 2 times into the next sc) rep 6 times. [42 chs]

Rnd 8: sc [42 chs]

Method

Rnd 12: sc [42 chs] Check the base size of your mug for fit.

3. Shaping the sides of the Mug

Change hook to 6mm

Working in rows now, not rnds. You will be shaping the mug handle opening. Row 1: sc 40 turn [40 chs]

Row 12: sc 40 turn [40 chs]

4. Fan-shape Edging

Row 13: ch 2, miss 2 chs, (*dc 4 times into the next ch, miss 3 chs) rep from * 8 more times [9 fans], dc 3 times into the next ch, dc into the last ch. [40chs] & [10 fans]

Row 14: (Buttonhole row) ch 18, ss into the last ch of the edging of

Row 13: Sc 22 evenly around the mug handle opening. Fasten off. Sew in loose ends. Sew a large button on the mug cosy.

Your mug cosy is now ready for use. Happy crocheting!
